Description	A noble and charming archontiko in the heart of historic Platanos village.

Built in the early 20th century, this traditional home captures the elegance of a bygone era, with its high ceilings, spacious layout, abundant light, and a breathtaking view over Panteli bay.

Set over two floors, it offers:

- Ground floor: kitchen, bathroom, living and dining areas.
- Upper floor: a very large, sun-filled living room and two bedrooms.

A 75 m<sup>2</sup> basement can be converted into an independent studio.

The roof is accessible and could host a stunning panoramic rooftop.

With its wooden staircase, noble proportions and authentic atmosphere, this archontiko is a rare find. With tasteful restoration, it can be transformed into a true architectural gem.

 Total surface: 150 m<sup>2</sup> + 75 m<sup>2</sup> basement
